

THE LORDS OF ELLINGHAM

By Henry Spicer

Although written in 1839, this Victorian-era drama contains the sort of extreme violence and lack of a firm moral compass that is usually associated with Jacobean tragedies. The plot centers on the Arabella Stuart Conspiracy in 1603. Jealousy and betrayal are ever present in this dire and bloody tale of revenge, treason, passion, and murder. (Summary by Dr. Kelly S. Taylor)
